Sarasota, Florida

(Near downtown Sarasota at the foot of Main Street and Tamiami Trail)

Registration Begins 8AM

Walk Begins 9AM

SPARCC

SAFE PLACE AND RAPE CRISIS CENTER

Saving Lives Today and Tomorrow

Route: We will begin at J.D. Hamel Park, crossing Tamiami Trail and over the John Ringling Bridge, cross at Bird Key Park and return to J.D. Hamel Park (3.5 mi).

October is Domestic Violence Awareness Month, and we would like for you to walk with us in support of this cause. Join us for a morning of fitness, inspiration, and camaraderie. Most importantly, join us to “step out” in support of a violence-free future. All are welcome- from walkers and supporters, to parents with strollers, children, and even pets. Join us with your signs, flags, banners and spirit gear. Do not sit by idly while domestic abuse affects so many.

- $5 Registration (includes T-Shirt)
- Non-Competitive
- Refreshments
- Awards for most spirited and largest teams.

Domestic Violence currently affects 1 in 4 women in the United States. It is the leading cause of injury to women between the ages of 15 and 44, and it is 100% preventable.

All proceeds from the event will support SPARCC’s mission to provide services to victims of domestic and sexual violence, and to promote a violence-free community through awareness and education.
