

ALERT TO ALL BUILDING DEPARTMENT CUSTOMERS

Sarasota County has made many changes to the Impact fees that will affect customers of both the County and the City of Sarasota.

On June 18th 2007

Roads, Parks and Library Impact fees will be going up substantially according to square footage for both commercial and residential buildings and additions.

The permitting technicians in the Building department will be able to provide you with the County breakdown sheets for the Impact fees that will be implemented.

If you have any questions or concerns about these new fees please contact Clarke Davis at Sarasota County at 941-861-0922.

On July 24, 2007

The County has adopted a new ordinance that will also be adding some new fees to the Impact fee schedule called: General government fee, Justice fee and Law Enforcement fee (only Sarasota County residences will pay the Law Enforcement fee.) EMS fee and Fire Rescue fees will go up or down according to type of building and square footage of space.

If you have any questions or concerns about these new fees please contact Gene Engman (gengman@scgov.net) at Sarasota County at 941-861-5244.
